1	(e) The document must be in the English language. A corporate
2	name need not be in English if written in English letters or Arabic or
3	Roman numerals, and the certificate of existence required of foreign
4	corporations need not be in English if accompanied by a reasonably
5	authenticated English translation.
6	(f) The document must be executed: signed:
7	(1) by the chairman of the board of directors of the domestic or
8	foreign corporation or by any of its officers;
9	(2) if directors have not been selected or the corporation has not
10	been formed, by an incorporator;
11	(3) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other
12	court appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary; or
13	(4) for purpose of annual or biennial reports, by:
14	(A) a registered agent;
15	(B) a certified public accountant; or
16	(C) an attorney;
17	employed by the business entity.
18	(g) Except as provided in subsection (m), the person executing
19	signing the document shall sign it and state beneath or opposite the
20	signature the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs.
21	document is signed. A signature on a document authorized to be filed
22	under this article may be:

29	(2) signed in the presence of a notary public;
30	(3) filed with the secretary of state; or
31	(4) included in another written agreement.
32	However, the power of attorney must be retained in the records of the

- (1) The secretary of state may accept payment of the correct filing fee by credit card, debit card, charge card, or similar method. However, if the filing fee is paid by credit card, debit card, charge card, or similar method, the liability is not finally discharged until the secretary of state receives payment or credit from the institution responsible for making the payment or credit. The secretary of state may contract with a bank or credit card vendor for acceptance of bank or credit cards. However, if there is a vendor transaction charge or discount fee, whether billed to the secretary of state or charged directly to the secretary of state's account, the secretary of state or the credit card vendor may collect from the person using the bank or credit card a fee that may not exceed the highest transaction charge or discount fee charged to the secretary of state by the bank or credit card vendor during the most recent collection period. This fee may be collected regardless of any agreement between the bank and a credit card vendor or regardless of any internal policy of the credit card vendor that may prohibit this type of fee. The fee is a permitted additional charge under IC 24-4.5-3-202.
- (m) A signature on a document that is transmitted and filed electronically is sufficient if the person transmitting and filing the document:

incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(b) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by section 7(b) of this chapter.
Unless so noted or contained, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.
(c) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized:

the number or identity of its shareholders;
(2) to preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law;
or
(3) for any other reasonable purpose.
(d) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may, among other things:
(1) obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;
(2) obligate the corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) to acquire the restricted shares;
(3) require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable; or (4) prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.
(e) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.
SECTION 19. IC 23-1-29-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 1. (a) Unless directors are elected by written consent instead of at an annual meeting as permitted by section 4 of this chapter, a corporation must shall hold a meeting of the shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. However, if a corporation's articles of incorporation authorize shareholders to cumulate the shareholder's votes when electing directors as provided under IC 23-1-30-9, directors may not be elected by less than unanimous consent.

- (b) Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of Indiana at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.
- (c) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.
- (d) If the articles of incorporation or bylaws so provide, any or all shareholders may participate in an annual shareholders' meeting by, or through the use of, any means of communication by which all shareholders participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A shareholder participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

SECTION 20. IC 23-1-29-2 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 2. (a) A corporation with more than fifty (50) shareholders must hold a special meeting of shareholders on call of its board of directors or the person or persons (including, but not limited to, shareholders or officers) specifically authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws. If such corporation's articles of incorporation require the holding of a special meeting on the demand of its shareholders, but do not specify the percentage of votes entitled to be cast on an issue necessary to demand such special meeting, the board of directors may establish such percentage in the corporation's bylaws. Absent adoption of such a bylaw provision, the demand for a special meeting must be made by the holders of all of the votes entitled to be cast on an issue.

- (b) A corporation with fifty (50) or fewer shareholders must hold a special meeting of shareholders:
  - (1) on call of its board of directors or the person or persons (including, but not limited to, shareholders or officers) specifically authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or
  - (2) if the holders of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to such corporation's secretary one (1) or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

	(c) Special shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of Indiana at	the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is	stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings shall be	held at the corporation's principal office.
	(d) If not otherwise fixed under section 3 or 7 of this chapter, the re	cord date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a sp	ecial meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the demand.
	(d) (e) Only business within the purpose or purposes described in th	e meeting notice required by section 5(c) of this chapter may be co	nducted at a special shareholders' meeting.
	(e) (f) If the articles of incorporation or bylaws so provide, any or all sh	areholders may participate in a special meeting of shareholders by, through the use of, any means of communication by which all areholders participating may simultaneously hear each other during e meeting. A shareholder participating in a meeting by this means is eemed to be present in person at the meeting.
	SECTION 21. IC 23-1-29-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
F	OLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 4. (a) Action required or	permitted by this article to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be	taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all the shareholders en	titled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by one (1) or	more written consents describing the action taken, signed by all the sh	areholders entitled to vote on the action, bearing the date of gnature, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or	filing with the corporate records.
	(b) If not otherwise determined under section 7 of this chapter, the re	cord date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a	meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under su	bsection (a).
	(c) Action taken under this section is effective when the last sh	areholder signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different pr	ior or subsequent effective date.
	(d) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vc	te and may be described as such in any document.
	(e) If this article requires that notice of proposed action be given to nc	privoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by unanimous ensent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least ten (10) days before the action is taken. The notice must contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this article, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

- (b) This subsection does not apply to a corporation that has a class of voting shares registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, any action required or permitted by this article to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting, and without prior notice, if consents in writing setting forth the action taken are signed by the holders of outstanding shares having at least the minimum number of votes that would be required to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted. The written consent must bear the date of signature of the shareholder who signs the consent and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.
- (c) If not otherwise fixed under section 7 of this chapter, and if prior board action is not required with respect to the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the first date on which a signed written consent is delivered to the corporation. If not otherwise fixed under section 7 of this chapter, and if prior board action is required with respect to the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date is the close of business on the day the resolution of the board taking the prior action is adopted. A written consent to take a corporate action is not valid unless, not later than sixty (60) days after the earliest date on which a consent delivered to the corporation as required by this section was signed, written consents signed by sufficient shareholders to take the action have been delivered to the corporation. A written consent may be revoked by a writing to that effect delivered to the corporation before unrevoked written consents sufficient in number to take the corporate action are delivered to the corporation.
- (d) A consent signed in accordance with this section has the effect of a vote taken at a meeting and may be described as a vote in any document. Unless the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides for a reasonable delay to permit tabulation of written consents, the action taken by written consent is effective when written consents signed by sufficient shareholders to take the action are delivered to the corporation.
  - (e) If this article requires that notice of a proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by written consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the action not more than ten (10) days after: (1) written consents sufficient to take the action have been delivered to the corporation; or (2) the date that tabulation of the written consents has been completed under an authorization as described in subsection (d). The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this article, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action. (f) If action is taken by less than unanimous written consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give its nonconsenting voting shareholders written notice of the action not more than ten (10) days after: (1) written consents sufficient to take the action have been delivered to the corporation; or (2) the date that tabulation of the written consents has been completed under an authorization as described in subsection The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this article, would have been required to be sent to voting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action. (g) The notice requirements of subsections (e) and (f) do not delay the effectiveness of actions taken by written consent, and a failure to comply with the notice requirements does not invalidate actions taken by written consent. However, this subsection does not limit the power of a court to fashion any appropriate remedy in favor of a shareholder adversely affected by a failure to give timely notice. (h) An electronic transmission may be used to consent to an action if the electronic transmission contains or is accompanied by information from which the corporation can determine the date on which the electronic transmission was signed and that the electronic transmission was authorized by the shareholder, the

SB 450—LS 7485/DI 110+

(i) Unless otherwise determined by a resolution of the board, shareholder's agent, or the shareholder's attorney in fact.

4	SECTION 22. IC 23-1-29-6 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
5	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 6. (a) A shareholder
6	may waive any notice required by this article, the articles of
7	incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the 8	notice. The waiver must be:
9	(1) in writing;
10	(2) signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice; must be in
11	writing and be
12	(3) delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or
13	filing with the corporate records.
14	(b) A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:
15	(1) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the 16	meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting
17	objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the
18	meeting; and
19	(2) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the 20	meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in 21	the meeting notice, unless the shareholder objects to considering
22	the matter when it is presented.
23	SECTION 23. IC 23-1-33-5 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
24	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 5. (a) The terms of the
25	initial directors of a corporation expire at the first shareholders' meeting
26	at which directors are elected.
27	(b) Unless the bylaws of a corporation specify otherwise as
28	provided under IC 23-1-39-4 or a shorter term is specified in the
29	bylaws for a director nominee failing to receive a specified vote for 30	election, the terms of all other directors expire at:
31	(1) the next; or
32	(2) if the director's terms are staggered in accordance with
33	section 6 of this chapter, the applicable second or third;
34	annual shareholders' meeting following their election. unless their
35	terms are staggered under section 6 of this chapter.
36	(c) A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an
37	incumbent director's term.
38	(d) The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the end
39	of the term for which the director's predecessor was elected.
40	(e) Unless the bylaws of a corporation specify otherwise as
41	provided under IC 23-1-39-4, despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until a successor is elected and

1	qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.
2	SECTION 24. IC 23-1-33-6 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
3	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 6. (a) The articles of
4	incorporation or the bylaws may provide for staggering their terms by
5	dividing the total number of directors into either:
6	(1) two (2) groups, with each group containing one-half (1/2) of
7	the total, as near as may be; or
8	(2) if there are more than two (2) directors, three (3) groups, with
9	each group containing one-third (1/3) of the total, as near as may 0	be.
1	(b) In the event that terms are staggered under subsection (a), the
2	terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual
3	shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group
4	expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election,
5	and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual
6	shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders'
7	meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of two (2)
.8	years or three (3) years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose
9	terms expire.
20	(c) A corporation that has a class of voting shares registered
21	with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 12 of
22	the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 shall provide for staggering
23	the terms of directors in accordance with this section unless, not
24	later than thirty (30) days after the later of:
2.5	(1) July 1, 2009; or
26	(2) the time when the corporation's voting shares are
27	registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission
28	under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;
29	the board of directors of the corporation adopts a bylaw expressly
0	electing not to be governed by this subsection. However, an election
31	not to be governed by this subsection may be rescinded by a
32	subsequent action of the board of directors unless the original
33	articles of incorporation contain a provision expressly electing not
4	to be governed by this subsection.
55	(d) If the board fails to provide for the staggering of the terms
56	of directors as required by subsection (c), the board must be
57	staggered as follows:
8	(1) The first group comprises one-third (1/3) of the directors
19	or one-third (1/3) of the directors rounded to the nearest
10	higher whole number if the number of directors is not
1	divisible by three (3) without any remaining.
12	(2) The second group comprises one-third $(1/3)$ of the directors or one-third (1/3) of the directors rounded to the nearest higher whole number if the number of directors is not divisible by three (3) without two (2) remaining.

	(3) The third group comprises one-third (1/3) of the directors or one-third (1/3) of the directors rounded to the nearest lower whole number if the number of directors is not divisible by three (3) without any remaining.
	The directors shall be placed into the groups established by this
1	subsection alphabetically by last name.
	SECTION 25. IC 23-1-33-7 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 7. (a) A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice:
	(1) to the board of directors, its chairman, or the secretary of the corporation; or
	(2) if the articles of incorporation or bylaws so provide, to another designated officer.
	(b) A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the
•	notice specifies a later effective date.
	(b) A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless
1	the notice specifies:
	(1) a later effective date; or
	(2) an effective date determined upon the happening of an event.
	(c) A resignation that is conditioned upon failing to receive a specified vote for election as a director may provide that the resignation is irrevocable.
	SECTION 26. IC 23-1-34-2 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 2. (a) Unless Except to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, require that action by the board of directors be taken at a meeting, action required or permitted by this article to be taken at a poard of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be:
	(1) evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken;
	(2) signed by each director; and
	(3) included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken; and
	(4) delivered to the secretary.
	(b) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director
1	signs the consent, unless:
	(1) the consent specifies a different prior or subsequent effective

1	date, in which case the consent is effective on that date; or
2	(2) no effective date contemplated by subdivision (1) is
3	designated and the action taken under this section is taken
4	electronically as contemplated by IC 26-2-8. If action is taken
5	as contemplated by IC 26-2-8, the effective date is determined
6	in accordance with IC 26-2-8.
7	A director's consent may be withdrawn by a revocation signed by 8	the director and delivered to the corporation before the delivery to 9	the corporation of unrevoked written consents signed by all the
0	directors.
1	(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting
2	vote and may be described as such in any document.
.3	(d) Action taken without a meeting is an organic action (as 4	defined in IC 26-2-8-102(15)).
.5	SECTION 27. IC 23-1-35-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
.6	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 1. (a) A director shall,
7	based on facts then known to the director, discharge the duties as a
.8	director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee:
9	(1) in good faith;
20	(2) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position
1	would exercise under similar circumstances; and
22	(3) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best
.3	interests of the corporation.
24	(b) In discharging the director's duties a director is entitled to rely
25	on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial
26	statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
27	(1) one (1) or more officers or employees of the corporation
8	whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and
9	competent in the matters presented;
0	(2) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to
1	matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's
3	professional or expert competence; or  (3) a committee of the board of directors of which the director is
54	(3) a committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee
5	merits confidence.
66	(c) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has
7	knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance
88	otherwise permitted by subsection (b) unwarranted.
9	(d) A director may, in considering the best interests of a corporation,
10	consider the effects of any action on shareholders, employees.

suppliers, and customers of the corporation, and communities in which offices or other facilities of the corporation are located, and any other factors the director considers pertinent.

- (e) A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, regardless of the nature of the alleged breach of duty, including alleged breaches of the duty of care, the duty of loyalty, and the duty of good faith, unless:
  - (1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section; and
  - (2) the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.
- (f) In enacting this article, the general assembly established corporate governance rules for Indiana corporations, including in this chapter, the standards of conduct applicable to directors of Indiana corporations, and the corporate constituent groups and interests that a director may take into account in exercising the director's business judgment. The general assembly intends to reaffirm certain of these corporate governance rules to ensure that the directors of Indiana corporations, in exercising their business judgment, are not required to approve a proposed corporate action if the directors in good faith determine, after considering and weighing as they deem appropriate the effects of such action on the corporation's constituents, that such action is not in the best interests of the corporation. In making such determination, directors are not required to consider the effects of a proposed corporate action on any particular corporate constituent group or interest as a dominant or controlling factor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, directors are not required to render inapplicable any of the provisions of IC 23-1-43, to redeem any rights under or to render inapplicable a shareholder rights plan adopted pursuant to IC 23-1-26-5, or to take or decline to take any other action under this article, solely because of the effect such action might have on a proposed acquisition of control of the corporation or the amounts that might be paid to shareholders under such an acquisition. Certain judicial decisions in Delaware and other jurisdictions, which might otherwise be looked to for guidance in interpreting Indiana corporate law, including decisions relating to potential change of control transactions that impose a different or higher degree of scrutiny on actions taken by directors in response to a proposed acquisition of control of the corporation, are inconsistent with the proper application of the business judgment rule under this article. Therefore, the general assembly intends:
  - (1) to reaffirm that this section allows directors the full discretion to weigh the factors enumerated in subsection (d) as they deem appropriate; and

SD 430—ES 74

1	(2) to protect both directors and the validity of corporate action
2	taken by them in the good faith exercise of their business
3	judgment after reasonable investigation.
4	(g) In taking or declining to take any action, or in making or
5	declining to make any recommendation to the shareholders of the 6	corporation with respect to any matter, a board of directors may, in its
7	discretion, consider both the short term and long term best interests of
8	the corporation, taking into account, and weighing as the directors
9	deem appropriate, the effects thereof on the corporation's shareholders
.0	and the other corporate constituent groups and interests listed or 1	described in subsection (d), as well as any other factors deemed
. 2	pertinent by the directors under subsection (d). If a determination is
.3	made with respect to the foregoing with the approval of a majority of 4	the disinterested directors of the board of directors, that determination
. 5	shall conclusively be presumed to be valid unless it can be 6	demonstrated that the determination was not made in good faith after
.7	reasonable investigation.
. 8	(h) For the purposes of subsection (g), a director is disinterested if:
9	(1) the director does not have a conflict of interest, within the
20	meaning of section 2 of this chapter, in connection with the action
21	or recommendation in question;
22	(2) in connection with matters described in IC 23-1-32 the
23	director is disinterested (as defined in IC 23-1-32-4(d));
24	(3) in connection with any matter involving or otherwise
25	affecting:
26	(A) a control share acquisition (as defined in IC 23-1-42-2) or
27	any matter related to a control share acquisition under
28	IC 23-1-42 or other provisions of this article;
29	(B) a business combination (as defined in IC 23-1-43-5) or any
0	matter related to a business combination under IC 23-1-43
51	(including a person becoming an interested shareholder) or
52	other provisions of this article; or
33	(C) any transaction that may result in a change of control (as
34	defined in IC 23-1-22-4) of the corporation;
35	the director is not an employee of the corporation; and
66	(4) in connection with any matter involving or otherwise
57	affecting:
8	(A) a control share acquisition (as defined in IC 23-1-42-2) or
19	any matter related to a control share acquisition under
10	IC 23-1-42 or other provisions of this article;
.1	(B) a business combination (as defined in IC 23-1-43-5) or any

matter related to a business combination under IC 23-1-43

1	(including a person becoming an interested shareholder) or
2	other provisions of this article; or
3	(C) any transaction that may result in a change of control (as
4	defined in IC 23-1-22-4) of the corporation;
5	the director is not an affiliate or associate of, or was not
6	nominated or designated as a director by, a person proposing any
7	of the transactions described in clause (A), (B), or (C).
8	(i) A person may be disinterested under this section even though the
9	person is a director or shareholder of the corporation.
10	SECTION 28. IC 23-1-35-5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
11	AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY
12	1, 2009]: Sec. 5. (a) A director's taking advantage, directly or 13	indirectly, of a business opportunity may not be the subject of
14	equitable relief, or give rise to an award of damages or other
15	sanctions against the director, in a proceeding by or in the right of 16	the corporation on the ground that the opportunity should have 17	first been offered to the corporation, if one (1) or more of the 18	following applies:
19	(1) The opportunity and all material facts concerning the
20	opportunity then known to the director were disclosed to or
21	known by the board of directors or a committee of the board
22	of directors before the director became legally obligated
23	regarding the opportunity, and the board of directors or
24	committee of the board of directors disclaimed the
25	corporation's interest in the opportunity.
26	(2) The opportunity and all material facts concerning the
27	business opportunity then known to the director were
28	disclosed to or known by the shareholders entitled to vote
29	before the director became legally obligated regarding the 30	opportunity, and the shareholders disclaimed the
31	corporation's interest in the opportunity.
32	(b) For purposes of subsection (a)(1), a business opportunity is
33	disclaimed if approved in the manner provided in IC 23-1-35-2(c)
34	as if the business opportunity were a conflict of interest
35	transaction.
36	(c) For purposes of subsection (a)(2), a business opportunity is
37	disclaimed if approved in the manner provided in IC 23-1-35-2(d)
38	as if the business opportunity were a conflict of interest
39	transaction.
40	(d) In any proceeding seeking equitable relief or other remedies
41	against a director for the director allegedly improperly taking advantage of a business opportunity, the fact that the director did not employ the procedure described in subsection (a) before taking advantage of the opportunity does not create an inference that the opportunity should have been first presented to the corporation or alter the burden of proof otherwise applicable to establish that the director breached a duty to the corporation under the circumstances.

SECTION 29. IC 23-1-38.5-3 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 3. (a) If a domestic or

The action must be evidenced by one (1)

or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, bearing the date of signature, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

- (b) If not otherwise determined under section 7 of this chapter, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under subsection (a).
- (c) Action taken under this section is effective when the last shareholder signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different prior or subsequent effective date.
- (d) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document:
- (e) If this article requires that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by unanimous consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least ten (10) days before the action is taken. The notice must contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this article, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.
- (b) This subsection does not apply to a corporation that has a class of voting shares registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, any action required or permitted by this article to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting, and without prior notice, if consents in writing setting forth the action taken are signed by the holders of outstanding shares having at least the minimum number of votes that would be required to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted. The written consent must bear the date of signature of the shareholder who signs the consent and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.
- (c) If not otherwise fixed under section 7 of this chapter, and if prior board action is not required with respect to the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the first date on which a signed written consent is delivered to the corporation. If not otherwise fixed under section 7 of this chapter, and if prior board action is required with respect to the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date is the close of business on the day the resolution of the board taking the prior action is adopted. A written consent to take a corporate action is not valid unless, not later than sixty (60) days after the earliest date on which a consent delivered to the corporation as required by this section was signed, written consents signed by sufficient shareholders to take the action have been delivered to the corporation. A written consent may be revoked by a writing to that effect delivered to the corporation before unrevoked written consents sufficient in number to take the corporate action are delivered to the corporation.

- (d) A consent signed in accordance with this section has the effect of a vote taken at a meeting and may be described as a vote in any document. Unless the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides for a reasonable delay to permit tabulation of written consents, the action taken by written consent is effective when written consents signed by sufficient shareholders to take the action are delivered to the corporation.
- (e) If this article requires that notice of a proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by written consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the action not more than ten (10) days after:
  - (1) written consents sufficient to take the action have been delivered to the corporation; or
  - (2) the date that tabulation of the written consents has been completed under an authorization as described in subsection (d).

The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this article, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

- (f) If action is taken by less than unanimous written consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give its nonconsenting voting shareholders written notice of the action not more than ten (10) days after:
  - (1) written consents sufficient to take the action have been delivered to the corporation; or
  - (2) the date that tabulation of the written consents has been completed under an authorization as described in subsection (d).

The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this article, would have been required to be sent to voting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

- (g) The notice requirements of subsections (e) and (f) do not delay the effectiveness of actions taken by written consent, and a failure to comply with the notice requirements does not invalidate actions taken by written consent. However, this subsection does not limit the power of a court to fashion any appropriate remedy in favor of a shareholder adversely affected by a failure to give timely notice.
- (h) An electronic transmission may be used to consent to an action if the electronic transmission contains or is accompanied by information from which the corporation can determine the date on which the electronic transmission was signed and that the electronic transmission was authorized by the shareholder, the shareholder's agent, or the shareholder's attorney in fact.
- (i) Unless otherwise determined by a resolution of the board, delivery of a written consent to the corporation under this section is delivery to the corporation's registered agent at its registered office or to the secretary of the corporation at its principal office.".

- (1) two (2) groups, with each group containing one-half (1/2) of the total, as near as may be; or
- (2) if there are more than two (2) directors, three (3) groups, with each group containing one-third (1/3) of the total, as near as may be.
- (b) In the event that terms are staggered under subsection (a), the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of two (2) years or three (3) years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

- (c) A corporation that has a class of voting shares registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 shall provide for staggering the terms of directors in accordance with this section unless, not later than thirty (30) days after the later of:
  - (1) July 1, 2009; or
  - (2) the time when the corporation's voting shares are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

- (d) If the board fails to provide for the staggering of the terms of directors as required by subsection (c), the board must be staggered as follows:
  - (1) The first group comprises one-third (1/3) of the directors or one-third (1/3) of the directors rounded to the nearest higher whole number if the number of directors is not divisible by three (3) without any remaining.
  - (2) The second group comprises one-third (1/3) of the directors or one-third (1/3) of the directors rounded to the nearest higher whole number if the number of directors is not divisible by three (3) without two (2) remaining.
  - (3) The third group comprises one-third (1/3) of the directors or one-third (1/3) of the directors rounded to the nearest lower whole number if the number of directors is not divisible by three (3) without any remaining.

The directors shall be placed into the groups established by this subsection alphabetically by last name.".

SECTION 28. IC 23-1-35-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 1. (a) A director shall, based on facts then known to the director, discharge the duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee:

- (1) in good faith;
- (2) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
- (3) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.
- (b) In discharging the director's duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
  - (1) one (1) or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
  - (2) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
  - (3) a committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.
- (c) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (b) unwarranted.
- (d) A director may, in considering the best interests of a corporation, consider the effects of any action on shareholders, employees, suppliers, and customers of the corporation, and communities in which offices or other facilities of the corporation are located, and any other factors the director considers pertinent.
- (e) A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, regardless of the nature of the alleged breach of duty, including alleged breaches of the duty of care, the duty of loyalty, and the duty of good faith, unless:
  - (1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section; and
  - (2) the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.

corporate governance rules for Indiana corporations, including in this chapter, the standards of conduct applicable to directors of Indiana corporations, and the corporate constituent groups and interests that a director may take into account in exercising the director's business judgment. The general assembly intends to reaffirm certain of these corporate governance rules to ensure that the directors of Indiana corporations, in exercising their business judgment, are not required to approve a proposed corporate action if the directors in good faith determine, after considering and weighing as they deem appropriate the effects of such action on the corporation's constituents, that such action is not in the best interests of the corporation. In making such determination, directors are not required to consider the effects of a proposed corporate action on any particular corporate constituent group or interest as a dominant or controlling factor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, directors are not required to render inapplicable any of the provisions of IC 23-1-43, to redeem any rights under or to render inapplicable a shareholder rights plan adopted pursuant to IC 23-1-26-5, or to take or decline to take any other action under this article, solely because of the effect such action might have on a proposed acquisition of control of the corporation or the amounts that might be paid to shareholders under such an acquisition. Certain judicial decisions in Delaware and other jurisdictions, which might otherwise be looked to for guidance in interpreting Indiana corporate law, including decisions relating to potential change of control transactions that impose a different or higher degree of scrutiny on actions taken by directors in response to a proposed acquisition of control of the corporation, are inconsistent with the proper application of the business judgment rule under this article. Therefore, the general assembly intends:

- (1) to reaffirm that this section allows directors the full discretion to weigh the factors enumerated in subsection (d) as they deem appropriate; and
- (2) to protect both directors and the validity of corporate action taken by them in the good faith exercise of their business judgment after reasonable investigation.
- (g) In taking or declining to take any action, or in making or declining to make any recommendation to the shareholders of the corporation with respect to any matter, a board of directors may, in its discretion, consider both the short term and long term best interests of the corporation, taking into account, and weighing as the directors deem appropriate, the effects thereof on the corporation's shareholders and the other corporate constituent groups and interests listed or described in subsection (d), as well as any other factors deemed pertinent by the directors under subsection (d). If a determination is made with respect to the foregoing with the approval of a majority of the disinterested directors of the board of directors, that determination shall conclusively be presumed to be valid unless it can be demonstrated that the determination was not made in good faith after reasonable investigation.

- (h) For the purposes of subsection (g), a director is disinterested if:
  - (1) the director does not have a conflict of interest, within the meaning of section 2 of this chapter, in connection with the action or recommendation in question;
  - (2) in connection with matters described in IC 23-1-32 the director is disinterested (as defined in IC 23-1-32-4(d));
  - (3) in connection with any matter involving or otherwise affecting:
    - (A) a control share acquisition (as defined in IC 23-1-42-2) or any matter related to a control share acquisition under IC 23-1-42 or other provisions of this article;
    - (B) a business combination (as defined in IC 23-1-43-5) or any matter related to a business combination under IC 23-1-43 (including a person becoming an interested shareholder) or other provisions of this article; or
    - (C) any transaction that may result in a change of control (as defined in IC 23-1-22-4) of the corporation;

the director is not an employee of the corporation; and

- (4) in connection with any matter involving or otherwise affecting:
  - (A) a control share acquisition (as defined in IC 23-1-42-2) or any matter related to a control share acquisition under IC 23-1-42 or other provisions of this article;
  - (B) a business combination (as defined in IC 23-1-43-5) or any matter related to a business combination under IC 23-1-43 (including a person becoming an interested shareholder) or other provisions of this article; or
  - (C) any transaction that may result in a change of control (as defined in IC 23-1-22-4) of the corporation;

the director is not an affiliate or associate of, or was not nominated or designated as a director by, a person proposing any of the transactions described in clause (A), (B), or (C).

- (i) A person may be disinterested under this section even though the person is a director or shareholder of the corporation.".

"SECTION 37. IC 23-1-42-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 4. (a) As used in this chapter, "issuing public corporation" means a corporation that has:

- (1) one hundred (100) or more shareholders;
- (2) its principal place of business or its principal office in Indiana, or substantial that owns or controls assets within Indiana having a fair market value of more than one million dollars ($1,000,000); and
- (3) either:
  - (A) more than ten percent (10%) of its shareholders resident in Indiana:
  - (B) more than ten percent (10%) of its shares owned of record or owned beneficially by Indiana residents; or
  - (C) ten one thousand (10,000) (1,000) shareholders resident in Indiana
- (b) The residence of a record shareholder is presumed to be the address appearing in the records of the corporation.
- (c) Shares held by banks (except as trustee or guardian), brokers or nominees shall be disregarded for purposes of calculating the percentages or numbers described in this section.

SECTION 38. IC 23-1-43-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "beneficial owner", when used with respect to any shares, means a person that:

- (1) individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, beneficially owns the shares (directly or indirectly);
- (2) individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, has:
  - (A) the right to acquire the shares (whether the right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time) under any agreement, arrangement, or understanding (whether or not in writing), or upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options, or otherwise (however, a person is not considered the beneficial owner of shares tendered under a tender or exchange offer made by the person or any of the person's affiliates or associates until the tendered shares are accepted for purchase or exchange); or
  - (B) the right to vote the shares under any agreement, arrangement, or understanding (whether or not in writing) (however, a person is not considered the beneficial owner of any shares under this clause if the agreement, arrangement, or understanding to vote the shares arises solely from a revocable proxy or consent given in response to a proxy or consent solicitation made in accordance with the applicable regulations under the Exchange Act and is not then reportable on a Schedule 13D under the Exchange Act, or any comparable or successor report); or

(3) has any agreement, arrangement, or understanding (whether or not in writing) for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting (except voting under a revocable proxy or consent as described in subdivision (2)(B)), or disposing of the shares with any other person that beneficially owns, or whose affiliates or associates beneficially own, directly or indirectly, the shares.

(a) This chapter does not require that a record or signature be created, generated, sent, communicated, received, stored, or otherwise processed or used by electronic means or in electronic form.

- (b) This chapter only applies to transactions between parties each of which has agreed to conduct transactions electronically. An agreement to conduct transactions electronically is determined from the context and surrounding circumstances, including the parties' conduct. A constituent of a business entity and a business entity are presumed to have agreed to conduct organic actions electronically unless and to the extent:
  - (1) the governing documents of the business entity limit or prohibit, in whole or in part, the use of electronic signatures, electronic records, or both; or
  - (2) the business entity expressly states the method, means, or requirement by which a constituent may respond to or participate in any organic action, including imposing a requirement that participants use a specific form of writing, record, or signature.

Unless and to the extent limited or prohibited in the governing documents of a business entity, any electronic record or electronic signature to be sent to a constituent is properly sent if sent in the manner and to the electronic address or other means of receipt designated by the constituent to receive the electronic record or electronic signature as shown in the current records of the business entity. If the electronic record is a notice, it is effective when sent. Unless and to the extent limited or prohibited, any electronic record or electronic signature sent by a constituent to a business entity shall be considered properly sent if it is sent in a manner designated by the business entity to an electronic address or other location designated by the business entity in a publication or notice provided by the business entity to the constituent. If the electronic record is a notice, it is effective upon receipt. The publication or notice may be included in the governing documents of the business entity, may be communicated to the constituent in writing, or may be transmitted by any other means selected by the business entity that is reasonably likely to convey the information to the constituent. A constituent or business entity may revoke or change any instruction regarding the manner, electronic address, or means of receipt the person requires for electronic records or electronic signatures by sending notice of the change and the corresponding new information.

- (c) If a party agrees to conduct a transaction electronically, this chapter does not prohibit the party from refusing to conduct other transactions electronically. This subsection may not be varied by agreement.
- (d) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the effect of any provision of this chapter may be varied by agreement. The presence in certain provisions of this chapter of the words "unless otherwise agreed", or words of similar import, does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement.
- (e) Whether an electronic record or electronic signature has legal consequences is determined by this chapter, if applicable, and otherwise by other applicable law.".
